@Frédéric Lafont

Describe us a typical day

As a Product Owner, I am responsible for creating and configuring the platforms for all our clients.

I am also in charge of testing and validating the functioning of the improvements and corrections made by our team of developers.

Give us one word to describe you

I am versatile !

What is your educational background?

I have a Master's degree in Economics and Business Management

Your greatest pride at Travel Planet

The conquering spirit that animated the whole company during the pandemic and that allowed Travel Planet to emerge with an even richer and more efficient offer.

Three words to describe Travel Planet

- Movement
- Ambition
- Engagement

How is working at Travel Planet a different experience compared to your previous professional experiences?

EVERYTHING (!) has been different for me since I moved from a multinational food company to a business travel start-up three years ago. But above all, at Travel Planet no day is like the previous one. It's a challenge but above all a great opportunity!
