

Press Release

Travel Planet is strengthening its technological leadership by integrating the inventory of one of Europe's leaders Deutsche Bahn on its Click & Control technology platform and Makitizy, its modular SaaS platform dedicated to travel operators.

Travel Planet, the French Travel Management Company (TMC) and technology publisher specializing in business travel, announces the direct integration of Deutsche Bahn (DB) inventory within its Click & Control booking platform and Makitizy, its modular white-label SaaS solution for travel operators, dedicated to travel management and distribution.

This integration, completed in record time by Makitizy's IT teams, allows Travel Planet to offer its customers real-time access to all Deutsche Bahn (DB) services: ICE trains, long-distance and regional connections, travel classes, and all complementary services.

Leaders united to accelerate sustainable business mobility

Fabrice Jacquet, Business Development Manager Travel Planet – Makitizy, said:

"The direct integration of Deutsche Bahn, the European leader, is a structuring step for Travel Planet and Makitizy. We are consolidating our leading position as a pioneer by offering sovereign, high-performance connectivity geared to the needs of corporate clients in key destinations. Rail is becoming the backbone of responsible business travel, and we're supporting this evolution with reliable, secure, and customizable technology. »

Alexander Mokros, Head of International and Online Sales Cooperations at Deutsche Bahn, adds: "Our collaboration with Travel Planet and Makitizy strengthens access to the Deutsche Bahn network for European business travellers. Together, we facilitate smoother, sustainable and digital mobility for companies and their teams.

This new step confirms Travel Planet's ambition: to offer the most complete rail coverage on the market and to become a reference technology for travel in France and abroad.
